In response to an Office Action dated 03/27/2002, on 05/15/2002 I timely filed an Amendment pursuant to 37 CFR 1.111. As is the standard practice of this office for hand deliveries, the Amendment was filed on 05/15/2002 in the "Lawyer's Window" at the Mail Room of the Patent Office by a professional courier, Mr. Peter H. Bunnell. Enclosed is a copy my office's check to Mr. Bunnell for this courier service.

Also enclosed is a Statement from Mr. Bunnell attesting to the fact that he recalls filing the Amendment in the Patent Office on 05/15/2002. In support of this Statement, I enclose a copy of Mr. Bunnell's Trip Docket showing that he filed the Amendment in the Patent Office at 2:50 PM, and that the mail clerk, a Maria Asfaw, signed the Trip Docket as proof of delivery. Coincidentally, Mr. Bunnell filed another paper for me in the Trademark Office the same day at 2:59 PM.; this also appears on the Trip Docket.

Mr. Bunnell states also that he mailed the date-stamped receipt post card on the same day. However, this post card did not reach my office, which is not unusual these days.

The copy of the enclosed Amendment as filed also shows the date on which the Amendment was hand delivered by me to Mr. Bunnell for delivery.
